

Visiting Internship for Ph.D. Students (VIPS) Program Application
Princeton Psychology Department

Name of potential Ph.D. student intern: _____

Home institution: _____

Department/Ph.D. program at home institution: _____

Name of Ph.D. Supervisor at home institution: _____

Name of confirmed Princeton PI host(s): _____

By submitting this application, you confirm you:

1. Are a current Ph.D. student at the time of application, and will continue the following academic year at your home institution.
2. Have support and approval from your home Ph.D. advisor.
3. Are a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, or international student with a valid student visa.

In no more than 2 pages, please describe the internship plan (as approved by you and your Princeton PI host). This should include a description of:

1. The research project
2. A timeline, including what will happen before and after the start of the internship
3. The expected output at the end of the internship
4. How this internship will help you to achieve your professional goals
5. Any resources needed and evidence that Princeton faculty will provide those resources
6. Please indicate if you have any alternative summer funding, or how you will be paid if you do not participate in the VIPS program.

This application must be submitted by the VIPS host (Princeton Psychology Faculty member) to akshah@princeton.edu by December 20, 2024. Your Ph.D. advisor (at your home institution) must also email the same address with a one-page letter indicating their approval of your application for this program and whether it is possible for them to provide you with alternative summer funding.